

Feedback from EMPLOYERS on Curriculum, Course, Teaching-Learning and Evaluationfor Session 2022-2023

1. The academic level/knowledge of the students is good.

4 responses

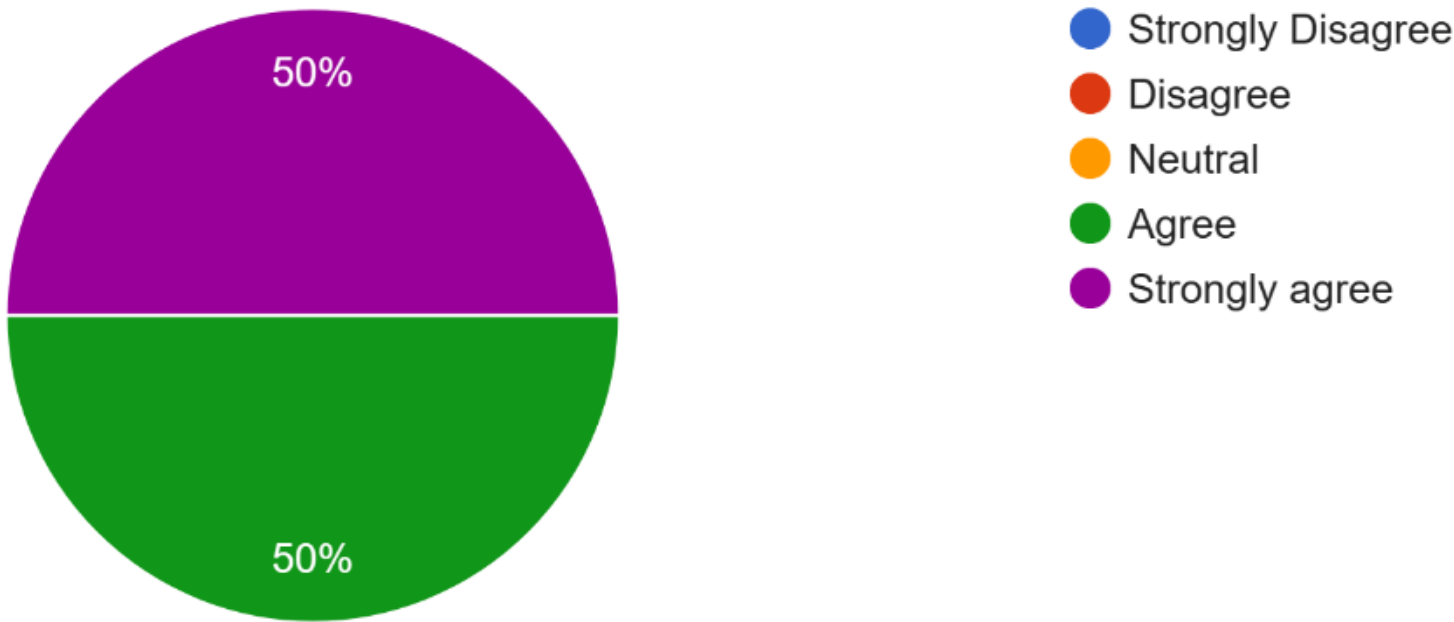

2. The curriculum and syllabus provide sufficient knowledge in the area of study.

4 responses

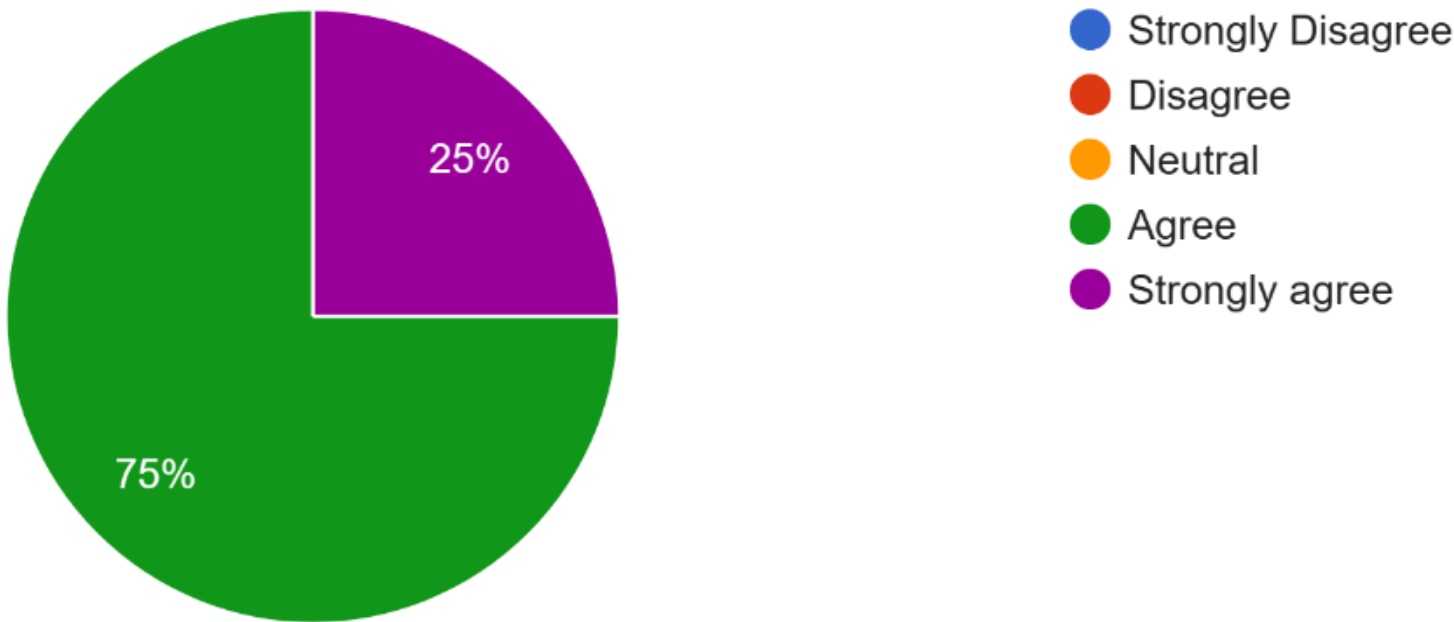

3. The teachers are able to work as part of the institutional team.

4 responses

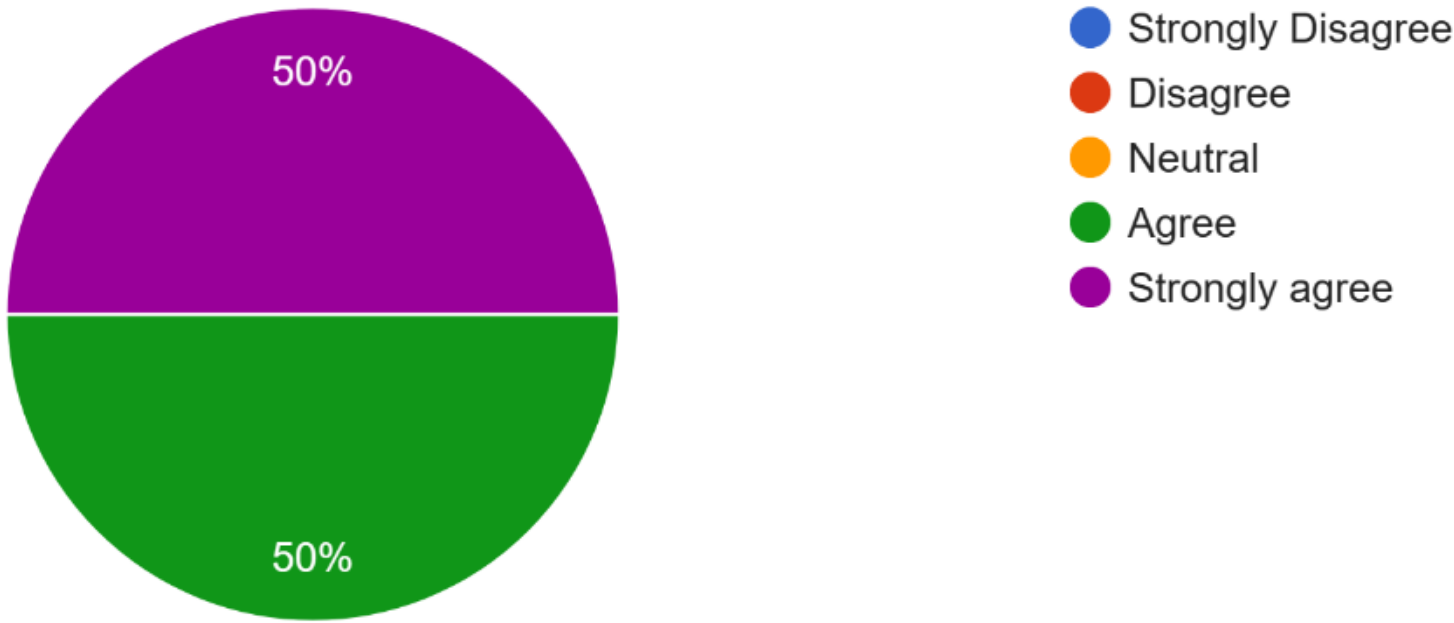

4. The students maintain cordial relation with their seniors and teachers.

4 responses

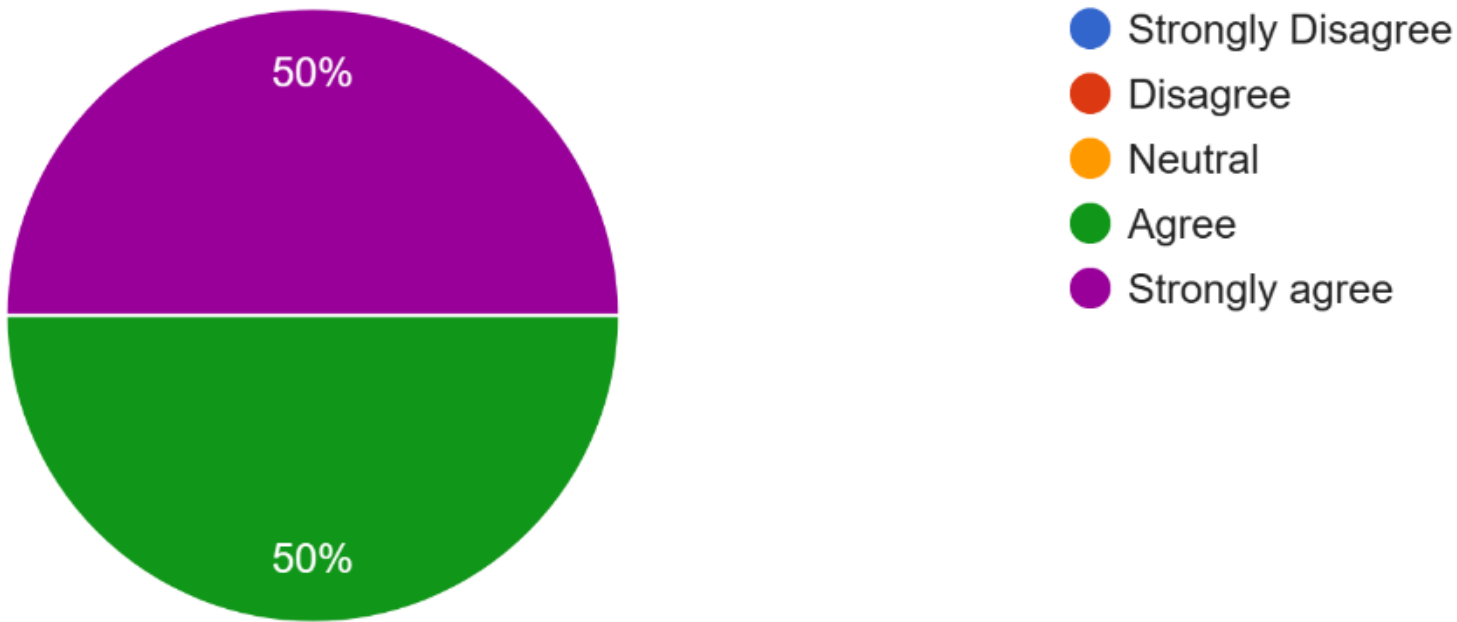

5. Communication skills of the teachers are good.

4 responses

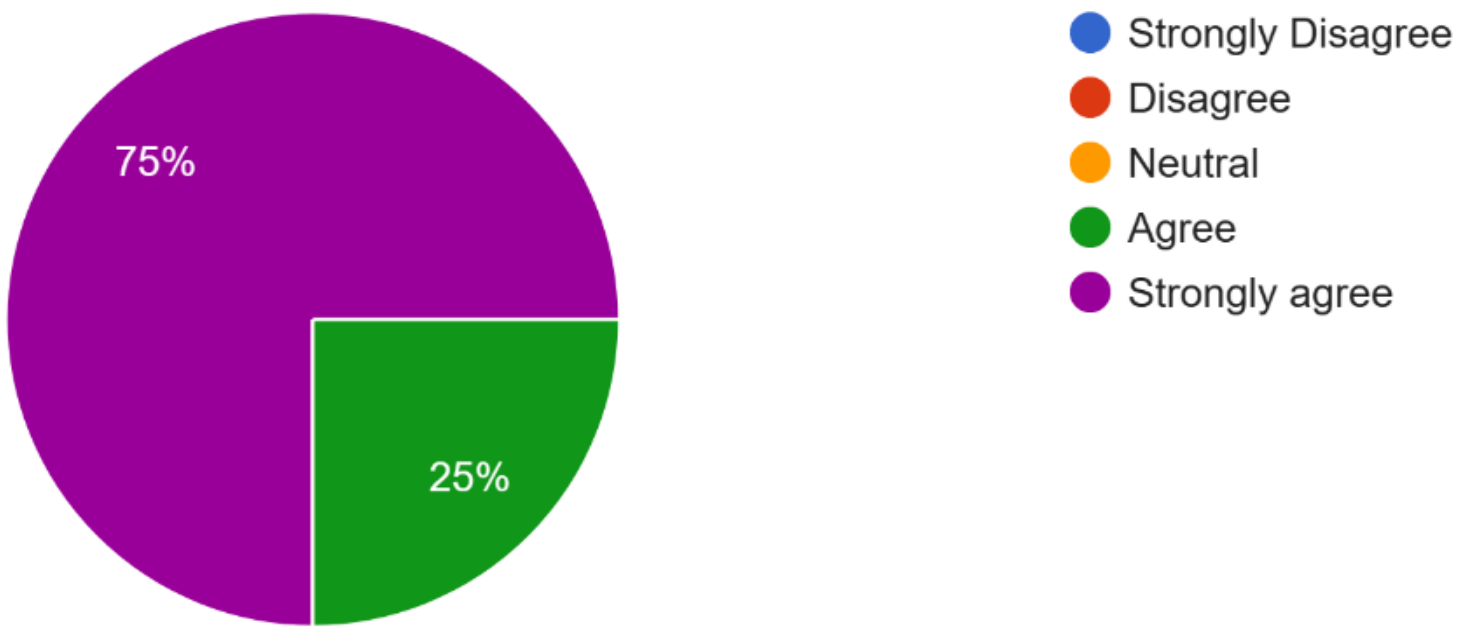

6. Teachers have leadership qualities and motivate their students.

4 responses

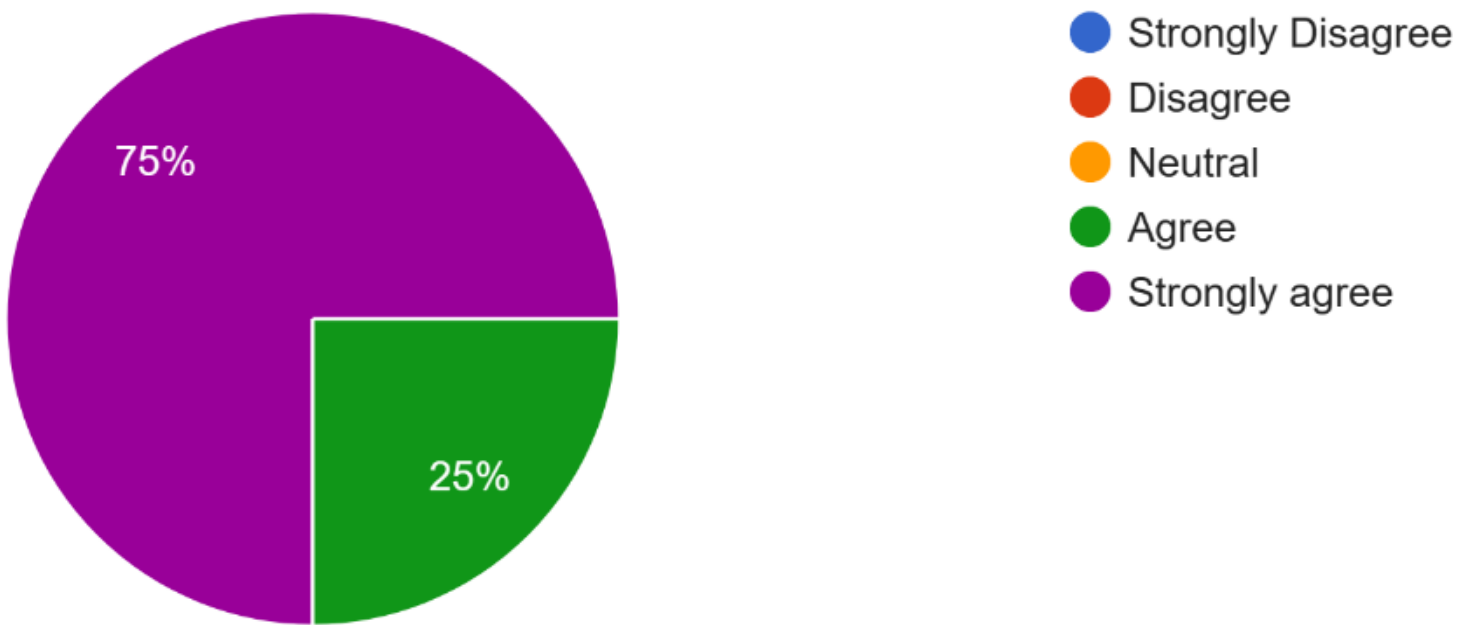

7. The office staff of the college is capable.

4 responses

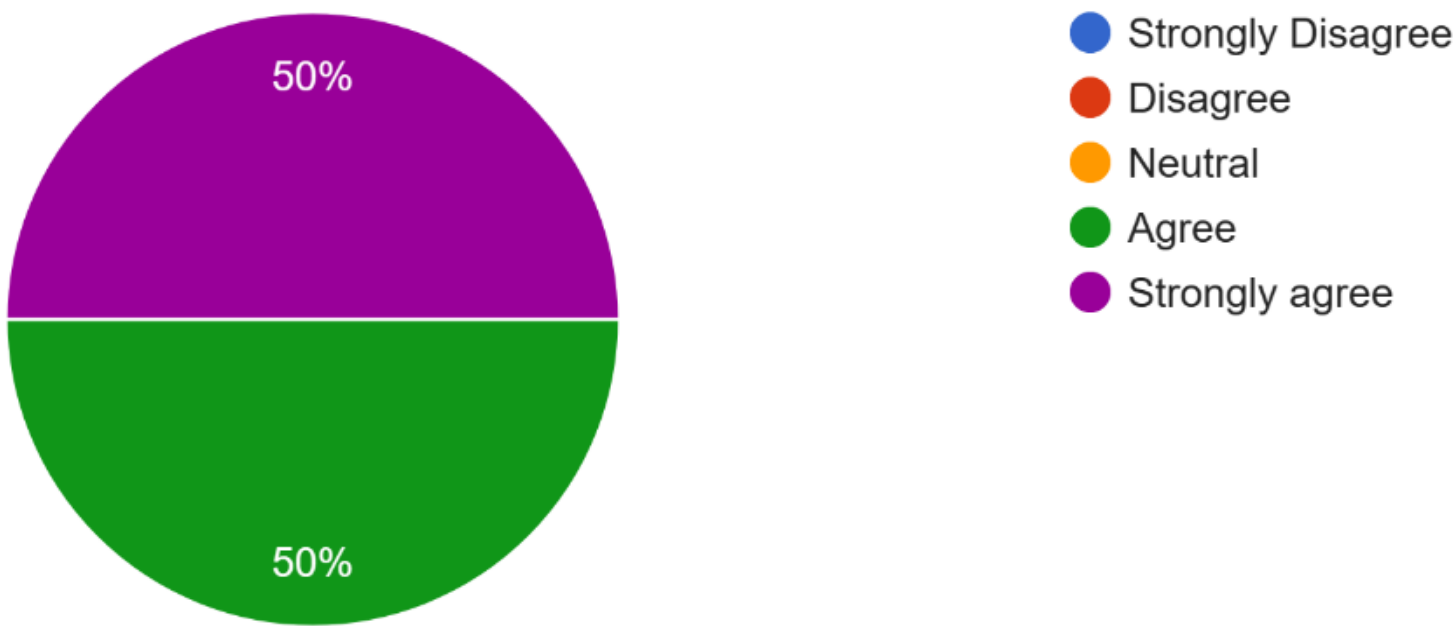

8. The office staff has good behaviour with teachers and students.

4 responses

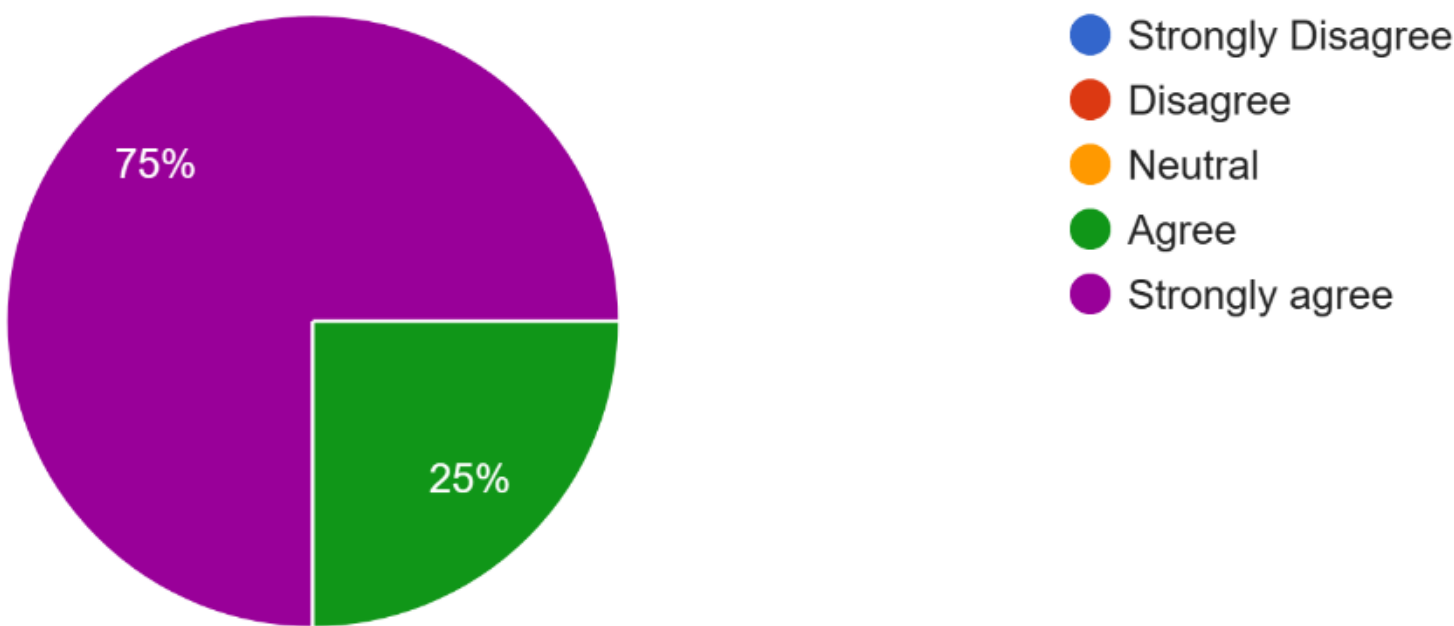

9. Teachers guide students to align themselves to the demanding needs of society.

4 responses

10. The curricular and non-curricular activities undertaken in college has helped the students to become all-rounders.

4 responses

Four responses were recorded from the employers on which we can conclude that according to the 75% of employers academic knowledge of the students is good. 75% of employers think that curriculum and syllabus provide sufficient knowledge in the area of study. 50% of employers agreed that teachers can work as a part of the institutional team. 75% of employers agreed that students maintain cordial relations with seniors and teachers. 50% of employers agreed that the communication skills of the teachers are good. 50% of employers think that teachers have leadership qualities and motivate students. 75% of employers said that the staff of the college is capable. 75% of employers agreed that office staff has good behavior with teachers and students. 50% of employers agreed that teachers guide students to align themselves with the demanding needs of society. 75% of employers said that the curricular and non-curricular activities undertaken in college have helped the students to become all-rounders.